Welcome to Centennial Of Coins

What is COC?

COC is centennial of coins

COC is a community, where two or more crew members share treasures amongst each other in a decentralised system.

COC serves only as a facilitator between crew members.

The key aim is to alleviate poverty and provide residual income across generations.

COC is engineered in such a way that the responsibility and sustainability depends on the honesty and commitment of all crew members.

Ideology

COC stands for Centennial of Coins which was established Mid-2016 by a group of entrepreneurs in Asia, and launched in Philippines and South Africa.

Media

& Communication

We as COC have our own way of communicating with our crew members.

This will be done via the media button on the deck (dashboard).

No unnecessary agitation, if you do not hear it from the COC news it's invalid information.

We will always strive to make sure you are promptly updated with what is happening aboard the COC ship.

We have an original click in menu button on our site for any updates and upcoming events.

COC Equilibrium Plan

The COC system - apart from regular joys of securing and vending coins and enjoying the collective growth and support - is designed to counter two destructive elements (cardinal sins) in mutual-aid initiatives,
1. GREED (system abuse)
2. PASSIVE PARTICIPATION (ignorance of the broader developmental vision)

Naturally a community like COC (social network) needs to have a higher rate of securing than vending. Meaning securing requests cannot at any stage be instant while vending has a queue.

Various mechanisms have been adopted (see "how it works") to ensure the aforementioned cardinal sins do not wreck the COC ship.

Worse Case Scenario

To avoid a direct personal loss of expected treasures members are encouraged to have an online Vault Storage plan. This should be a personal wallet where 10% monthly benefits should be stored for Annual Keys and recovery insurance.

Once again secure only coins that may not stretch you emotionally and domestically should there, for one reason or another, be an unexpected meltdown.
